Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1,7,49-50 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Melvin '977.

Melvin teaches a external element 70 with supporting members 84, as well as an internal support member 52, see column 4, lines 57-65. Regarding claim 70, yoke 70 encompasses both ventricles. Regarding claim 50, the yoke can be considered a strap as to its shape.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2,3,8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Melvin '977 in view of Alferness '343.

Melvin teaches all of the subject matter of the above claims except the use of mesh. Alferness teaches the use of mesh in a device used to support the heart.

Art Unit: 3762

It would have been obvious to use mesh with the device of Melvin since such is commonly used in the art due to its strength and flexibility.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 37 is allowed.

52 6. Claims 4, 5, 6, <sup>51</sup>31 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
